NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Mathias Bugino Said to Have Burned His House and Used Kerosene.

THIRD ATTEMPT IS SUCCESSFUL

Fires Keep Firemen Busy for Several Hours Extinguishing Them.
Keeps Neighbors Awake All Night.
Story of a Dog and Two Bullets.
Church Entertainment—Meeting of Patriotic Guards.

The grocery store of Mathias Bugino at Prospect avenue and Cherry street, caught fire yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, and an alarm was sounded from box 57. The Centuries and William Connell's stores, next to it, and two streets were turned on the fire. It was found that three separate parts of the place were on fire, in the cellar, in the front, and in the rear part of the house. The firemen found an oil tank filled with kerosene oil in the cellar, and carried it, at the instance of Chief Forster, to the middle of the garden.
The tank was locked with a large padlock. In a short time the fire was put out. Again at 5 o'clock another alarm was sounded and the firemen hastened to the same place and found the fire this time in the upper part of the house. They also discovered a very strong odor of coal oil. Chief Forster asserts that he could smell it a block away. He further said that when he examined the oil tank which was carried into the garden he found it broken open and nearly one-half the oil gone. It is his opinion that kerosene set fire to the premises. There was a policy of $500 carried on the effects with Peter Robbings' agency. A second time the fire was extinguished and the firemen went home. At 7:30 once more the same alarm was rung and this time the building with its contents was totally destroyed. Only the sidewalks are left standing.

Songs from the Phonograph.
The congregation of the German Methodist Episcopal church at Prospect avenue and Birch street held a very splendid phonographic entertainment last night at the church. The pastor, Rev. J. Sater, arranged the exercises and procured the services of Professor E. Reger. The phonograph was erected before the pulpit, and two large funnels were used to enhance the acoustic properties of the instrument.
A diversity of tones were evolved and the large audience was highly pleased.
The proceeds will net a handsome sum to the church fund.

Condensed Topics.
A business meeting of Company A, Patriotic Guards, was held last night in Fruehan's hall on Cedar avenue.
This society was organized in February and is already in a flourishing condition. The object is to drill its members in military tactics. When the warmer weather approaches they will have out door field drills in the South Side base ball park.

The funeral of the three Schneider children was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains were interred in Pittsman avenue cemetery.
Rev. Mr. Zitzelman, of the Millin avenuce German Lutheran church, read prayer at the graves.

The Scranton Athletic club has arranged for a tug-of-war between its own team and that of the Mitchell Hose company, of Carbondale, at the club's excursion to Farview June 19.

The funeral of Mary Veppez, the 6-months old daughter of John Veppez, of Prospect avenue, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in No. 2 German Catholic cemetery.
